A Meditation on the Most Holy Trinity - Year C

We may think that the doctrine of the Trinity is too complicated or abstract to make much of a difference in our daily lives. And yet the "mystery" of the Most Holy Trinity is the central, pivotal article of our Christian faith and life. It is indeed the mystery of God in himself. It is therefore the source of all the other mysteries of faith and a light that enlightens them. According to the new Catechism of the Catholic Church, the Trinity is a most fundamental and essential doctrine. It is the epitome of who God really is - a real interpersonal, wise, loving God. And because God has revealed to us who he really is, we are truly able to conceptualize God - and to love him. Our Triune God is one yet revealed in three substances as Father, Son, Spirit.

As we contemplate the awesome wonder and beauty of God, let us perceive our personal God as Father, Son, and Spirit - one essential being yet three-in-one, hence separate and distinct. Thus we can say that they are in relationship one another as an eternal communion of love.

In the second reading from the Apostle Paul's Epistle to the Romans, the Trinity demonstrates the all-encompassing love of God, the Creator through whom proceeds the Christ who is our peace and through whom the Holy Spirit has been given to us.

The Spirit is gifted to us by God the Creator and by his Son Jesus Christ who is co-eternal with the Father and as God consubstantial with the Creator, begotten not made. Blessed be God the Father and the only begotten Son of God, and also the Holy Spirit, for he has shown us his mercy. And again, Paul states, by faith in the legacy of his Hebrew roots and his definitive monotheism inherited from Israel's understanding of God - Whose is covenant and prophets and the fathers and from whom is the Christ according to the flesh who is overall, God bless forever. Amen. (cf Ro 9,5)

Thus, the mystery of the Trinity that remained in the shadows throughout the OT, burst into light in the NT as the relational Trinity of love, a trajectory of God's never-ending mercy.

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR

JUNE: That the world might grow in compassion. Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.
