A Spiritual Meditation on the Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ (Corpus Christi) - Year C

When we eat this bread and drink this cup, we proclaim your death, Lord Jesus Christ and your rising to eternal life.

On this Solemnity of Corpus Christi, the second reading offers the earliest account of the institution of the Eucharist. Jesus tells his disciples that his body and blood are given for them as he then commands them to do this action in remembrance of him. Jesus provides more than a meal. He gives us his very self, broken for us on the Cross.

In making a gift of himself, Jesus is one with God the Father who looks with favor on the Son, his only begotten. As the sacrifice on the cross is an action remembered, we are then able to receive this gift and proclaim the salvation of the whole world.

In the body and blood of Jesus Christ on the altar of the cross, God establishes a new covenant of peace. O God, who in this wonderful sacrament you have left us a memorial of your passion. The Lord God has sworn and has said, This day I have begotten you. You are a priest forever in the line of Melchizedek - O God, who descended from on high and became man for us and our redemption. Let us rejoice in the Lord Jesus Christ, our bread of life, our cup of salvation.

Through Jesus you strengthen and nourish us in the journey to the Father. Jesus, source of life, you give life to all.

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR

JUNE: That the world might grow in compassion. Let us pray that each one of us might find consolation in a personal relationship with Jesus, and from his Heart, learn to have compassion on the world.

Vocation View—Answer The Sacred Call

At every Mass, just as John the Apostle witnessed in Revelation, angels surround the altar as Heaven and Earth unite through the miracle of the Eucharist! This divine moment can only happen through our priests. Feeling called to this extraordinary mission? Father Albino awaits your call at 716-754-7489!
