A Spiritual Meditation for Palm Sunday of the Passion of the Lord - Year A

Unlike other Sundays there are two Gospels read on Palm Sunday – one for the procession and a reading of the passion narrative. Jesus enters the city riding on a donkey. This episode fulfills the prophecy found in the OT prophetic book of Zechariah. With a clear cut precision, Zechariah contrasts how various kings once entered Jerusalem and how the Messiah – King would enter the city. The worldly kings rode magnificent horses. The Messiah enters with profound humility. “Say to daughter Sion, behold, your king comes to you, meekly riding on a beast of burden.”

This triumphal entry of Jesus speaks of a large crowd; and it is the opening event of Holy Week, the final, sacred days of Jesus’ time on earth. The city of Jerusalem was filled with many pilgrims who were there at Passover time. A city of roughly 50,000 to 60,000 is overflowing with another quarter of a million people. Roman soldiers and Jewish leaders would quite certainly be concerned that such a throng of people could give rise to a riot.

Spreading their cloaks and tree branches on the road, Jesus is proclaimed as the Son of David and heralded as the one who comes in the name of the Lord. It is a time to rejoice, “Hosanna in the highest.” It is a brief, triumphal moment. The people cry out, Yahweh, save us. The procession into Jerusalem is a prophetic gesture presaging fulfillment of when he will die on the cross only a few days later.

Indeed, the events of Holy Week are somewhat of a roller coaster ride: the joyful triumphalism of Palm Sunday, the solemn reading of the Passion narrative, the serene Masses on Monday – Wednesday. The Chrism Mass is when the bishops call and together the priests and deacons to reaffirm their promises of episcopal obedience. Finally to the beautiful moment of Holy Thursday, the Mass of the Last Supper occurs when the Church is reminded of God’s reconciliation to humanity.

Moreover, Holy Week is a sacred summary of the 40 days of Lent, a discipline that proposes prayer, penance, and perseverance to prepare us for celebrating and remembering The Paschal Mystery – the life, death by crucifixion, and resurrection of Jesus Christ whose cross and rising from the dead is both the source and summit of our faith-journey to God.

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR

MARCH: FOR DISARMAMENT AND PEACE
LET US PRAY THAT NATIONS MOVE
TOWARD EFFECTIVE DISARMAMENT,
PARTICULARLY NUCLEAR DISARMAMENT,
AND THAT WORLD LEADERS CHOOSE THE PATH OF DIALOGUE AND DIPLOMACY INSTEAD OF VIOLENCE.

APRIL: FOR PRIESTS IN CRISIS
LET US PRAY FOR PRIESTS GOING THROUGH MOMENTS
OF CRISIS IN THEIR VOCATION, THAT THEY MAY FIND
THE ACCOMPANIMENT THEY NEED AND THAT COMMUNITIES MAY SUPPORT THEM WITH UNDERSTANDING AND PRAYER.

Vocation View - Answer The Sacred Call

At every Mass, just as John the Apostle witnessed in Revelation, angels surround the altar as Heaven and Earth unite through the miracle of the Eucharist! This divine moment can only happen through our priests. Feeling called to this extraordinary vocation? Father Albino awaits your call at 716-754-7489!

St. Padre Pio had an extraordinary devotion to Eucharistic Adoration.

St. Anthony M. Zaccarian Apostolate Prayer

March: May the Angelic Sisters of St Paul, in their commitment to education, always uphold the goal of offering children and young people a place of social and foster their cognitive, emotional, and social potential, placing their well being and harmonious development at the center, so that each of them can best express their abilities and overcome fears and weaknesses.

April: That the Laity of St. Paul and the Affiliates of the Barnabite Order may with courage and perseverance bring fire and light to their lives and may they always contribute to the reform of the social environment in which they live with passion and dedication.

Intercession for Life

May our shrine community come together to become a place of welcoming and assistance for all mothers in need; let us pray to the Lord.

The Barnabite Fathers want to wish you..
A Holy and Peaceful Lenten Season
as we journey through Holy Week.
