A Spiritual Meditation for the 17th Sunday in Ordinary Time - Year A

"All things work for good for those who love", and even though the axiom might come across as a Biblical truism, the Apostle Paul reminds us in his letter to the Romans that we are called by faith to be images of God's Son. But to be truly like God we need the gifts of wisdom and understanding. This requires an openness to allow the Holy Spirit to work for the kingdom of heaven. To find the kingdom we follow Jesus who is the way. Moreover, in the ancient world, wisdom was understood as knowing how to live the righteous life.

For the people of Israel, the Torah was an incredible gift of God's mercy - and the pathway to living the good, righteous life. In the responsorial psalm "Lord, I love your commands," The Law is so esteemed as a gift from God and an exemplary revelation of how to lead the good life.

In today's first reading from 1 Kings, Solomon's asks of God in a dream for an understanding heart in order to distinguish right from wrong. Down through the ages, the wisdom of Solomon has been overused to the point of becoming exaggerated a cliché. Nevertheless, Solomon's glibness is not gratuitous. If anything, his sincere request of God was his earnest desire was to exemplify a heart wise and understanding.

The wisdom of Solomon is underscored throughout the OT as a porous membrane osmotically integrated into the valued importance of the Law. Seeking the kingdom of Jesus, who is the way is to discover the efficacy to live the good life.

EUCCHARISTIC ADORATION

Wed. & Fri. 12:00noon - 4:00pm
In the Blessed Sacrament Chapel.

Adorers are always needed... inquire at the shrine office or call 716-754-7489

St. Padre Pio had an extraordinary devotion to Eucharistic Adoration.

THE HOLY FATHER'S INTENTION FOR

July: For respect for human life
Let us pray for the respect and protection of human life in all its stages, recognizing it as a gift from God.

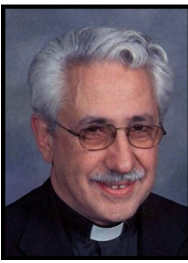

August: For evangelization in the city
Let us pray that in large cities often marked by anonymity and loneliness we find new ways to proclaim the Gospel, discovering creative paths to build community.

Vocation View - Answer The Sacred Call

At every Mass, just as John the Apostle witnessed in Revelation, angels surround the altar as Heaven and Earth unite through the miracle of the Eucharist! This divine moment can only happen through our priests. Feeling called to this extraordinary vocation? Father Albino awaits your call at 716-754-7489!

St. Anthony M. Zaccarian Apostolate Prayer

July: That through the intercession of St. Anthony Mary Zaccaria, physician and priest, who loved Christ above all else, we may live with ardent faith and a heart open to the renewal of the Spirit, so as to serve our brothers and sisters with sincere love.

August: That we may learn to trust God alone and to have confidence in Him alone; and from Him we invoke the gift of the spirit of abandonment, to accept the things we cannot change, the spirit of strength to change the things we can change, and the spirit of wisdom to discern what truly depends on us, so that we may learn to do His only and holy will.

Intercession for Life

May our shrine community come together to become a place of welcoming and assistance for all mothers in need; let us pray to the Lord.

Again Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world..." ~ John 8:12

The basilica is an absolute architectural masterpiece beyond our imagination. It took approximately two years to build (1963–1965), and it features a diameter of 100 feet and an interior ceiling height of 55 feet. Atop the dome sits a 13-foot-tall statue of Our Lady of Fatima that weighs 10 tons.
